POLITICS.

California is convulsed with her political struggle. The three great contending parties are making the whole State tremble with their war whoop, and nothing is spoken of now but the probable result of the election. Both Ropublicans and Domoorats attack the Independents. This is hardly fair on the part of the Democrats. They fostored the Independent party when it was small and puny and fed it on fine promises and words and even went so far as to unito with it in the Grant and Greeley campaign, but now it has become to be full-grown and robust, and they fear it will carry off the officers on the 1st of September, hence their desire to crush it out. This is hardly the troutment that a child should expect from its parent, but it is still the policy of the Democracy to rule or rain, if not by fair means then by foul. Of course the Ropublicans object to the Independents, for they are mostly dissatisfied Republicans that form the party. The fight is bitter and intensely personal. All will breathe freer when the whole affair is done away with,

Mouse Ross,-This is the highest peak of the Sierras in the immediate wicinity of Rono, and it is generally covered with a "snowy mantle" all the year round, but already it is baro that may occur. on this side, with the exception of one small place. The extended hot messon, together with the last light Winter has had this effect, Tho scarcity of snow on the mountains has made itself noticeable in the low waters of the Truckoo, which is now very shallow indeed-o'on amost as shallow as the trout is scarce.

CONORMS AND BALL -- Next Thursday evening Prof. Jacobson, assisted by a troupe formed of Virginia city talent, will give a grand concort, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, and we know they can not fail to entertain the public. They were fined $26 each, in default of which they will languish in jail for thirteen days.

NEW YARD MASTER. - Yesterday there was a change made in the Reno yard by which A. Y. Galo takes the place occupied herotofore by Harry Atherton. Mr. Gale has had considerable experience in railroading and will no doubt do his work satisfactory to all concerned. The Rene yard is a hard one, and keeps the master busy, but Mr. Galo will no doubt do well
